This hereditary health guarantee does not cover or warranty against viral or bacterial illnesses and does not include or cover accidental physical injury or any digestive system related illness such as giardia, coccidiosis, or cryptosporidiosis, which can be commonly and readily contracted by dogs of all ages through the ingestion of unclean or contaminated water, or eating such things as sticks, rocks, dirt, spoiled food, animal feces, rodents, etc. Additionally, this health guarantee does not cover the onset of cancer, illnesses that develop due to the ingestion of foreign objects, chemicals, poor diet, or the onset of physical or mental stress.

Remedy: If it becomes necessary to replace a dog or to seek a remedy due to a health problem, the Buyer agrees to choose one of the following remedies.

- 1) The Breeder will replace with a puppy of equal value. When choosing this remedy, the Buyer is required to return the dog to the Breeder at Buyer's expense. It is understood that there may not be a replacement puppy available at the time of the request, therefore the Breeder is given up to 12 months to satisfy this remedy.
- 2) The Breeder will reimburse the Buyer in the amount of 100% of the original purchase price of the puppy. It is understood that reimbursement is defined as the Breeder giving back to the buyer 100% of the original sale price of the puppy, not including costs of shipping or training. When choosing this remedy, the Buyer is required to return the dog to the Breeder.
- 3) The Breeder will reimburse the Buyer in the amount of 50% of the original purchase price of the puppy. It is understood that reimbursement is defined as the Breeder giving back to the buyer 50% of the original sales price of the puppy, not including costs of shipping or training. When choosing this remedy, the Buyer may keep the dog.
